

Weddings at

ANTONY WOODLAND GARDEN

A naturally beautiful setting for your most memorable day

ANTONY ESTATE · LYNHER ESTUARY · CORNWALL

A place to make your own

Nestled within the historic Antony Estate on the banks of the Lynher estuary, the Woodland Garden at Antony House is one of Cornwall's most beautiful and best-kept secrets.
Just a short ferry ride from Plymouth, it is a place of extraordinary natural beauty.

We specialise in intimate weddings of up to 60 guests, where every detail can be given the attention it deserves.
Our magnificent giant witches hat tipi is available on a dry-hire basis, giving you the freedom to decide how to dress, decorate, cater and run your day to suit your budget.

From photographs beneath a canopy of ancient trees to a reception in the woodland, we would love to help you create a beautiful day in extraordinary surroundings.

A setting that tells its own story

What we offer

Thoughtful support, beautiful surroundings and the freedom to shape your day.

— Exclusive use of designated areas of Antony Woodland Garden for your reception

— Stunning natural backdrops throughout the garden for photography

— Access to the garden from early morning for set-up and preparation

— The Woodland Kitchen offers a beautiful, relaxed setting for receptions and dining, with locally-sourced catering options available

— A dedicated point of contact throughout your planning journey

— On-the-day co-ordination to help everything run smoothly

— Trusted local supplier recommendations, including florists, photographers, musicians and caterers

— A flexible approach to personalise your day

— Car parking

Why couples choose us

— A genuinely unique and historic setting

— No two visits, and no two weddings, are ever the same — Intimate capacity means personal, informal and unhurried attention for every couple

— Exceptional natural beauty in every season

— Minutes from Plymouth by ferry — easy to reach, yet it feels a world away

— The garden becomes part of your wedding, not just a backdrop

Come and see it for yourself

We would love to show you the garden and our facilities and talk through your ideas.

Please get in touch to arrange a visit — there is nothing like seeing it for yourself.

sara@antonywoodlandgarden.com

www.antonywoodlandgarden.com

